TERM: Fall 2018

PROFESSOR: Deacon Peter Lovrick

REGISTRATION: LIMITED TO ___

UNLIMITED _____

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Introduction to Homiletics is a one-semester course that gives students the opportunity to look at the theology, tradition and practice of Catholic preaching. Students will examine particular questions, issues and challenges in homiletics from a Catholic perspective, survey the development of preaching throughout Church history, and articulate the characteristics and practice of good preaching. This course is a prerequisite for Advanced Homiletics.

COURSE OUTCOMES OR OBJECTIVES:

1. define the Catholic understanding of homily;
2. identify what the Church asks of its homilists;
3. differentiate Catholic liturgical preaching from preaching in other situations and in other traditions;
4. determine and respond to key issues, challenges and questions in homiletics;
5. identify the characteristics of outstanding preaching;
6. explain methods for preparing to preach;
7. identify important developments in the history of Catholic preaching;
